

Materials Handling and Spill Prevention BMPs

Photo Source: Colorado Department of Transportation

02-0025-11

Materials Handling and Spill Prevention BMPs

Photo Source: Colorado Department of Transportation

02-0025-11

Materials Handling and Spill Prevention BMPs

Photo Source: Colorado Department of Transportation

02-0025-11

Materials Handling and Spill Prevention BMPs

Photo Source: Colorado Department of Transportation

02-0025-11

Materials Handling and Spill Prevention BMPs

Highway construction and maintenance activities use various materials, chemicals and fuels that can be harmful to water quality.

The Colorado Department of Transportation requires its contractors to use Best Management Practices (BMPs) to avoid discharge of hazardous materials. These BMPs include the following:

- Stockpile management
- Material management
- Material use
- Spill prevention and control

Guidance: CDOT Erosion Control Stormwater Quality Guide, Chapter 5

Materials Handling and Spill Prevention BMPs

Highway construction and maintenance activities use various materials, chemicals and fuels that can be harmful to water quality.

The Colorado Department of Transportation requires its contractors to use Best Management Practices (BMPs) to avoid discharge of hazardous materials. These BMPs include the following:

- Stockpile management
- Material management
- Material use
- Spill prevention and control

Guidance: CDOT Erosion Control Stormwater Quality Guide, Chapter 5s

Materials Handling and Spill Prevention BMPs

Highway construction and maintenance activities use various materials, chemicals and fuels that can be harmful to water quality.

The Colorado Department of Transportation requires its contractors to use Best Management Practices (BMPs) to avoid discharge of hazardous materials. These BMPs include the following:

- Stockpile management
- Material management
- Material use
- Spill prevention and control

Guidance: CDOT Erosion Control Stormwater Quality Guide, Chapter 5

Materials Handling and Spill Prevention BMPs

Highway construction and maintenance activities use various materials, chemicals and fuels that can be harmful to water quality.

The Colorado Department of Transportation requires its contractors to use Best Management Practices (BMPs) to avoid discharge of hazardous materials. These BMPs include the following:

- Stockpile management
- Material management
- Material use
- Spill prevention and control

Guidance: CDOT Erosion Control Stormwater Quality Guide, Chapter 5

