

You Said:

Need public input. Need to know what's important to the community.

We Listened:

The US 24 plan was developed with significant public input. Hundreds of conversations were held with neighborhood groups, property and business owners, and local governments.

