

Partnership Opportunities

One of the hallmarks of a successful Context Sensitive Solutions process is the building of partnerships to ensure that the full breadth of the plan gets implemented. The following pages include a few examples of how concepts we heard from the community were built into this plan and lend themselves to building partnerships.